Mayor to perform opening ceremony for new Lidl store

The new Lidl store in Ormskirk.

GERMAN discount supermarket giant Lidl will open its new store in Ormskirk tomorrow (Thursday, November 21).

Situated on Burscough Road, opposite Hattersley Retail Park, the store has invited members of the public to a ribbon-cutting ceremony to be performed by Mayor of West Lancs, Councillor Gaynar Owen at 8am.

The company says the new store forms part of its ongoing expansion and regeneration plans across the UK and will create up to 40 new jobs, with positions still being advertised on Lidl's careers website.

Facilities will include an in-store bakery, customer toilets, baby changing and parking for both cars and bicycles.

Lidl GB's regional head of property, Stuart Jardine, commented: "We would like to thank all those who have played a part in bringing this new Lidl store to Ormskirk.It is great for us to be able to create more jobs and investment opportunities in the area and we can't wait to start serving our multi-award winning products to the local community."

The store is part of a joint development with Chorley Community Housing and Citypark Projects Ltd for 51 affordable homes and a terrace of six business units on the former site of timber flooring manufacturer, Atkinson and Kirby, which moved out in 2015. The business units have already been completed while the housing project is expected to be completed next autumn.

The residential development will comprise 20 one-bedroom apartments, 10 suitable for older persons; 10 semi-detached, three-bedroom houses; and 21 semi-detached and terraced two-bedroom houses. Chorley Community Housing says they will be 'affordable' dwellings available for rent.

PARENTS FIGHT PLANS TO MAKE HISTORIC SCHOOL AN ACADEMY

Report by Kenny Parker

PARENTS of pupils at historic Ormskirk School are fighting plans to turn it into an academy following two damning reports by the education standards regulator Ofsted.

The school was rated as 'requires improvement' by inspectors in March, 2017 and following a further inspection in May this year it was deemed 'inadequate', automatically triggering a process to make it a sponsored academy.

However parents are demanding that Oftsed carry out another inspection, saying the timing of the second visit was unfair as the school had only just appointed a "dynamic" new headteacher, Martin Witter, who needed time to turn things around.

Parents and supporters have now set up a group, Save Ormskirk School, to campaign to halt the forced academisation and for Ofsted to return to the school and give it "a fair crack of the whip."

A statement released by the group read: "Ormskirk School has existed for more than 400 years but this proud local institution may soon be swallowed up by a multi-academy trust with no interest in or knowledge of our town and its citizens.

"Given the huge improvements to the school we have seen under Mr Witter it is entirely wrong to simply hand over, not only our staff and students, but our buildings and sports fields to a commercial organisation with no link to our school or Ormskirk itself. We will fight this every step of the way."

The Department For Education (DfE) has said it is unable to comment on the matter due to the ongoing election but has confirmed that an order "must" be made to force a school to become a sponsored academy if it has been judged 'inadequate' by Ofsted in line with statutory requirements for all maintained schools.

Ormskirk School.

Ofsted has said that it carried out its inspection within the time frame outlined in the Schools Inspection Handbook and that the decision to make the school into an academy is a matter for the DfE.

Five-way fight to be borough's next MP

THE candidates contesting the West Lancashire seat in the forthcoming General Election have now been finalised and it's set to be a five-way fight on December 12.

Labour's Rosie Cooper, who is bidding to be elected for a fifth time, will be opposed by Jack Gilmore for the Conservatives, Simon Thomson for the Liberal Democrats, John Puddifer for the Green Party and Marc Stanton for the Brexit Party.

Here the candidates outline their policies:

Rosie Cooper (Labour)

"It has been my honour and privilege to serve the people of West Lancashire for the last 14 years. In that time I have always fought for your priorities, to make your voice heard and for a better future for West Lancashire.

I stand by my record on championing issues important to local residents - a record of delivering on my promises. I have always kept my commitment to being West Lancashire's voice in Westminster, not Westminster's voice in West Lancashire.

An NHS in crisis, school funding cuts, a broken social care system unable to support the elderly and vulnerable, a climate change emergency and threats to our environment, rising crime levels and lowering policing numbers. This is the price of Conservative government. A price West Lancashire residents are paying. It is clear that Conservative priorities are not West Lancashire's priorities.

I am working with local residents, in opposing fracking in West Lancashire; on securing investment to tackle the devastating effects of flooding and drainage that will better protect homes and entire communities; and supporting action on the climate change emergency.

"I believe passionately in our NHS, and am committed to continuing to fight off any threat to the future of Ormskirk Hospital and stopping further privatisation."

Jack Gilmore (Conservative)

"Having lived in West Lancashire most of my life the future of the area is close to my heart, hence my desire to be its representative in Westminster.

In 2016 I campaigned for Leave, and I believe that the result of the referendum should be honoured by delivering Brexit; there shouldn't be a second referendum.

If elected I will protect our Green Belt by prioritising brownfield developments, support our Prime Minister in ensuring we get a fair share of the 20,000 new police officers and work to improve our infrastructure.

Specifically, I will campaign to reopen the Burscough Curves, get a new rail link for Skelmersdale and improve our roads. I will also ensure that West Lancashire benefits from the Conservative Government's extra funding to improve health services, safeguard Ormskirk Hospital and fight the stigma attached to mental health.

At this election people will have to ask themselves whether Jeremy Corbyn is fit to be Prime Minister. I truly believe that a Corbyn-led Government would be an absolute disaster for West Lancashire and indeed the whole country. A Conservative-majority Government will deliver Brexit by the end of January, invest in our hospitals and police and help build a better Britain."

Simon Thomson (Liberal Democrats)

"This is an election in which Brexit will be the defining issue and as the candidate of the largest Remain party I will campaign on behalf of West Lancashire residents who believe that the UK has a brighter future as part of the European Union.

Membership of the EU has given West Lancashire residents opportunities to live, love, travel and work easily across member states, whilst the EU has funded many projects in the constituency and enabled the local NHS Trust to employ nurses from EU countries at a time of chronic staff shortages.

As West Lancashire's MP my other priorities would include the following: Improving local transport links. Securing extra investment in local schools and youth services. Campaigning for fracking to be banned, increasing the amount of electricity generated by renewable sources to 80%, and ensuring all low-income homes are insulated. Increasing funding for our NHS by putting a penny on income tax and treating mental health services with the same urgency as physical health. Working to build a fairer economy through the provision of free childcare from nine months and giving every adult £10,000 to spend on education and training throughout their lives."

John Puddifer (Green Party)

"This needs to be the 'Climate Election' and I'm standing to give every voter in the West Lancashire constituency the opportunity to make this the top priority.

We face an enormous challenge from the Climate Crisis - just witness the flooding events that have dominated the news here in England.

I stood in the local elections in Wrightington last summer and 23% of voters backed our message in our best local election result in West Lancs. Nationally, two million people voted Green in the European Elections. There is the realisation that we only have a decade left to take the necessary action to protect ourselves, our way of life and our planet.

Our Green New Deal would tackle both climate breakdown and the shameful levels of inequality and under-investment, particularly in places like Skelmersdale. We can instead aim for cleaner air, warmer homes and greener communities. We all deserve the opportunity to have good jobs that pay a fair wage.

Green Party MP Caroline Lucas was one of the founders of the People's Vote movement and we are proud to have led calls in Parliament for a second referendum. We celebrate and defend the right to free movement. A vote for the Greens is to Remain and change Europe."

Marc Stanton (Brexit Party)

"For too long the voter - especially in this area - has been ignored and they are fed up with it. 55.3% of the people of this constituency voted to leave and their wishes have just been ignored.

Worse than that, they have been told that they are stupid and that they 'got it wrong'. Politicians of all sides have just lied and prevaricated in a desperate attempt to keep Britain in the EU.

It is time to end this madness and force the politicians to do as people have told them to do. Voting for Marc Stanton and the Brexit Party will send a message that voters have had enough of this madness and it is time to leave the EU once and for all.

West Lancashire has been the forgotten part of the region. It needs acceptable transport links with an Ormskirk by-pass and appropriate train services between Southport and Manchester airport as well as improved regional links.

Businesses must be developed across the constituency, with special attention paid to educational and youth opportunities. We desperately need an increase in affordable housing without destroying Green Belt land and we need more police officers."

Candidates bidding for your votes outline policies as countdown to poll date continues

LOTTERY FUNDED

Freemasons' £57,000 donation to blind charity's project to tackle loneliness

THE West Lancashire Freemasons have donated £57,000 to Galloway's Society for the Blind which helps support visually impaired and lonely people living in Lancashire.

West Lancashire Freemasons Tony Harrison and Keith Kemp with partially sighted service users Linda McCann and Laurel Devey and Nicola Hanna from Galloway's.

The Freemasons grant supports the charity's 'Be Seen' project aimed at people over 50, who will be given specially tailored support plans to cater for their individual interests and needs, including advice about the latest technology and equipment.

Overall aim of the project is to help blind and partially sighted people to reduce loneliness and establish a sustainable support network for the future.

As well as the practical elements of the package, Galloway's, which serves people with sight loss across Lancashire, will provide much-needed emotional support, to combat the depression and isolation that so often accompany sight loss.

The demand for sight loss support services in Lancashire is expected to grow with more than 41,000 people in the county currently affected by sight loss, and three quarters of those over the age of 50.

A report released last year by the Royal National Institute of Blind People said that feelings of wellbeing are lower amongst blind and partially sighted people when compared to the rest of the population. Four out of every 10 blind and partially sighted people felt moderately or completely cut off from people and things around them. More than 40 per cent of people attending low-vision clinics are suffering from symptoms of clinical depression. 31 per cent of blind and partially sighted people were rarely or never optimistic about the future.

Head of income generation and communications for Galloway's, Nicola Hanna, said: "We're absolutely delighted that the West Lancashire Freemasons have chosen to support Galloway's. This generous grant means we can reach even more people who might be struggling with the effects of sight loss, and who might be feeling isolated and depressed. Our goal is that nobody should have to face sight loss alone."

Tony Harrison, leader of West Lancashire Freemasons, said: "I'm very pleased we've been able to help Galloway's with their hugely important work. Sight loss can be devastating, and the practical and emotional support that Galloway's gives to thousands of visually-impaired people is absolutely crucial."

The grant from West Lancashire Freemasons comes through the Masonic Charitable Foundation, which is funded by freemasons, their families and friends, from across England and Wales.

Moving tributes to war veteran and 'perfect gent' Joe

Report by Kenny Parker

TRIBUTES have been paid to a Second World War veteran and 'perfect gentleman' who passed away just weeks after visiting the graves of his fallen comrades in the Netherlands.

Joe Mawdesley from Aughton died earlier this month at the age of 94.

His funeral was held at his beloved local place of worship, the village's Christ Church, where he had attended for more than 60 years, on Monday, November 18.

Joe was a 19-year-old soldier with the 1st Battalion Border Regiment when he was called up to take part in Operation Market Garden - an ultimately ill-fated attempt by Allied forces to create a path into the north of Germany between September 17 and 25, 1944.

He was one of 35,000 airborne troops flown in behind enemy lines on a glider on the second day of the attack.

After surviving two days of heavy bombardment from enemy troops, Joe was hit by a sniper, sustaining serious injuries to his shoulder and arm. Later captured by the Germans, he spent the rest of the conflict as a prisoner of war.

He made a poignant return to the Netherlands for the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Arnhem in September - featured on the front page of the Champion - during which he visited the graves at Oosterbeek War Cemetery.

Interviewed by TV crews at the time, he said he believed it would be the last chance he would have to honour his lost pals.

An avid cricket fan, Joe was the oldest member of Ormskirk Cricket Club and never missed a Saturday at the Brook Lane venue.

Following news of his passing, chairman, Tim Dickinson posted on the club's website: "On a personal note, I've known Joe for over 40 years, and a nicer person I have yet to meet. Genuine, caring and thoughtful are just a few of the words that spring to mind. All his friends at the club will miss Joe, but his memory will live on."

Joe Mawdsley with his son Graham at Ormskirk Cricket Club.

Fellow club official, Steve Mansel said: "I've never met anyone like Joe. A true one off, the perfect gentleman, never a bad word to say about anyone. He really was a genuine bloke. A hero in my eyes and so humble. I'll miss you Joe. Cricket Saturdays will be weird without you there in that window with your cuppa and butties."

Joe was also much loved at Christ Church. The vicar, Reverend Sarah O'Donoghue, said: "Everyone loved Joe, a gentle man with a huge heart and quiet faith. He was the kind of person that everyone would want as their dad or granddad - the salt of the earth.

"Just recently Joe had visited Arnhem for the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Arnhem, appearing on TV many times. He also spoke about the importance of remembering those who have given so much and of being a peacemaker.

"His legacy to us here at Christ Church is to follow his great example of faith and Christian witness - to be a peacemaker in our community and aim to love our neighbour as ourselves.

"As a church we have been so blessed to have Joe as part of our Christ Church family and now our thoughts and prayers are with his widow Flo and the family."

Town-centre Iceland store will close in new year

ICELAND has announced that it is to close its store in Aughton Street, Ormskirk after being unable to agree on a new lease with the landlords.

The frozen food store which occupies a site previously occupied by Woolworths, will close from January 4 next year but a spokesperson for the company said that all staff have been offered jobs in other stores.

The spokesperson said: "I can confirm that our Aughton Street Iceland store in Ormskirk will close on January 4 2020, due to the expiry of our lease.

"Our 12 colleagues working in the store were informed of the closure last month and all were offered alternative positions at our other stores in the area.

"We are naturally grateful to our many loyal customers in Ormskirk for their support over the years, and hope that we may be able to continue to serve them at our other Iceland and The Food Warehouse stores, including The Food Warehouse at Hattersley Retail Park in Ormskirk."

The spokesperson added: "The store is closing because we have been unable to secure a new lease on terms that would allow the store to trade profitably."

London-based Faircastle Ltd, the Aughton Street store's landlords have declined to comment.

Former Liverpool FC captain dies at 91

A FORMER captain of Liverpool Football Club who has lived in Burscough since the 1960s, has died at the age of 91.

Johnny Wheeler was a versatile right-sided player who began his career at Tranmere Rovers and Bolton Wanderers before moving to Anfield in September 1956.

He went on to make 177 appearances for the Reds and was appointed club captain by manager Phil Taylor in the 1958-59 season.

Included in the 23 goals he scored for the club was a remarkable five-minute hat-trick against Port Vale a couple of months after he had arrived at Anfield.

He also won one cap for England against Northern Ireland in 1954.

During his time at Bolton he featured in the famous 1953 'Stanley Matthews' Cup Final against Blackpool.

A spokesperson for Liverpool FC said: "We are deeply saddened by the passing of former captain Johnny Wheeler at the age of 91.

"The thoughts of everybody at Liverpool Football Club are with Johnny's family and friends at this sad time."

He was invited to Anfield last year by chief executive Peter Moore as the club's oldest living captain.

Host of entertainment lined up for town's fairy tale-themed Christmas lights switch-on WEST Lancs Council has announced details of Ormskirk's Christmas lights switch-on event to be held this Sunday, November 24 with a host of entertainment lined up.

The free event will get underway at around 1pm with special guest Tozi the 'Christmas Flamingo' winging into town and the Lantern Company's storytellers, who will tell stories from Ormskirk's Christmas of Tales.

Tozi will re-appear later in the day and children can dress up in their favourite fairy tale theme.

Meanwhile Father Christmas will pay a visit to the Chapel Gallery in St Helens Road which will open from midday to 6pm to hear children's Christmas wishes.

Families can also shop for hand-crafted gifts at the gallery's festive market and there will be more stalls round the Clock Tower.

Throughout the day there will be performances by popular children's entertainer Mr Stix and Magic Story Jars will be there to give jars of tales for families to take home.

Silcocks will also be providing children's funfair rides.

From 2pm at the Clock Tower there will be on stage entertainment provided by Onyx Dance Troupe, Base Dance and the Skelmersdale Prize Band. Crowds can then enjoy singing along to Christmas classics with the Rock Choir and pop favourites with the Abba Now tribute act.

The traditional carol service will start at 4.30pm before the festive lights are switched on at 5pm.

A spokesperson for the council said: "Parking is free on council car parks on Sundays and train and bus stations are a stone's throw from the magic. It couldn't be easier to get to Ormskirk's Christmas of Tales so don't miss this fantastic event."

The fairy tale theme continues in the town until Sunday, December 8 with six locations showcasing animations with a creative twist on traditional stories. These include 'Little Folk Should Lock Their Doors' starring Little Red Riding Hood and the Three Little Pigs.

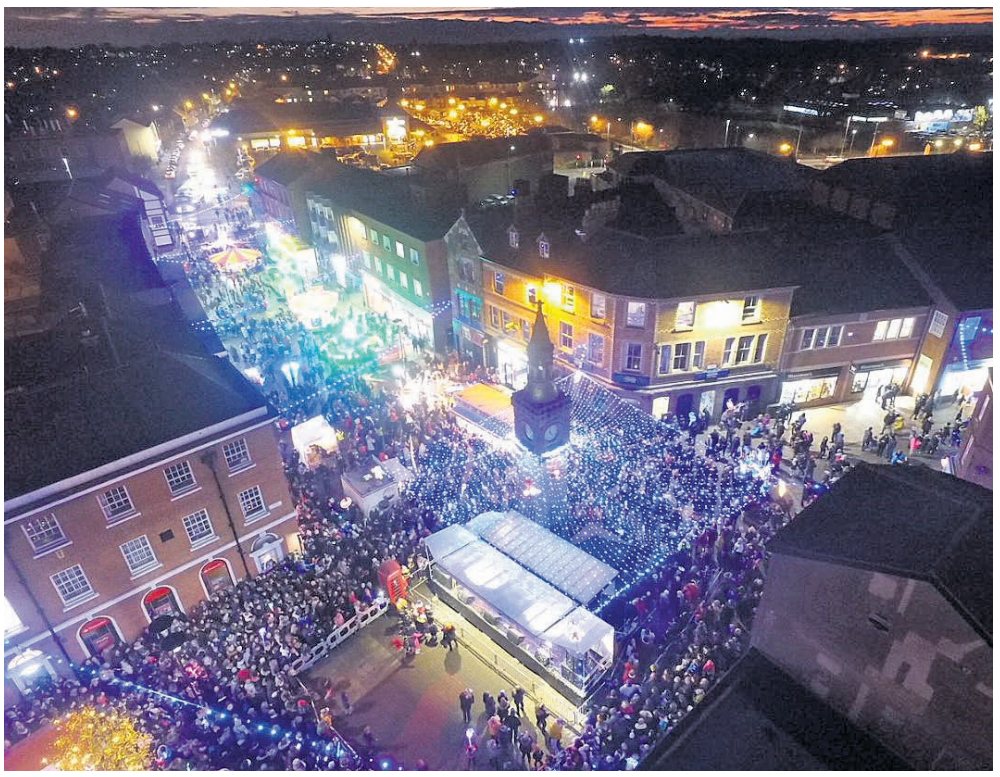
Meanwhile, also on Sunday November 24, there will be a Christmas tree lights switch-on event at Ormskirk Parish Church from 4pm.

The tree, which has been funded by the local community since cuts led to West Lancs council withdrawing its support in 2016, was saved for another year following an appeal by Our West Lancashire's Derby ward councillor Ian Davis.

Councillor Davis said: "Father Christmas will be joining us outside the parish church at 4pm to spread some early seasonal cheer to all - young and old. The light switch-on will follow at 4.15pm.

"Once again the community have given generously to make this happen and all are welcome to come and join us as the countdown to Christmas starts. Special thanks go to Malthouse Business Centre, Ormskirk for their help and the New Ormskirk Residents Group and Ormskirk Christian Fellowship."



A packed Ormskirk town centre at a previous Christmas lights switch-on event.

Parents' campaign to halt bid to turn historic school into an academy

Mr Witter said he was unable to comment while the legal process is ongoing.

Ormskirk School was created in September 2001 by the amalgamation of Cross Hall High School and Ormskirk Grammar School. The latter was established around 1610.

A website set up by the Save Ormskirk School group says the reasons for the poor rating in 2017 were down to a turbulent time in the school's leadership, which was also noted by the Ofsted report.

And they draw attention to an extract in the 2019 report which reads: "The current headteacher has been in post since Easter 2019 and, after only 20 days, is already having a positive impact on the school. Leaders are already starting to come to grips with some of the areas that need strengthening."

Explaining their opposition to the school being turned into an academy they cite the case of the failed Wakefield City Academies Trust which collapsed with the loss of substantial funds, some of which had been raised by parents.

The group says: "Ormskirk School is in the unique position of having a Foundation Trust which is over 400 years old.

"The trust has financial assets including some obtained when land belonging to the old Ormskirk Grammar school was sold. These are used for the exclusive benefit of the pupils of our school.

"The academy vultures will soon be circling to get their hands on our money. We will not let this happen - the funds belong to the trust and must continue to be used for the benefit of all pupils in our school and our school alone."

Hospital to hold fifth Christmas baby and child remembrance service for families

Informal event offers support to those grieving for lost loved ones in run-up to festive season

THE annual baby and child remembrance service at Ormskirk Hospital will be held on Wednesday, December 4 this year, starting at 6.30pm.

This will be the fifth anniversary for the service, which is arranged and supported by chaplains from Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust to help families remembering lost loved ones in the weeks running up to Christmas.

Lead chaplain, Martin Abrams, said: "Christmas can be a very exciting and special time but it can also heighten a sense of loss, grief and isolation for those who have experienced any bereavement. This is particularly so for anyone who has had a pregnancy, baby or child loss.

"This service has become a much-appreciated event. Last year more than 70 people attended, many of whom, whether religious or not, told us how helpful they found it.

"We hope the short, informal service will be supportive to anyone who has suffered a child or baby loss, not just recently, but at any time in the past.

Reverend Martin Abrams.

"The Salvation Army band will join us and, amongst other things, we will be writing the names of loved ones on baubles to hang from our Christmas tree.

"This year, our visitors will also have an opportunity to take a bauble home with their loved ones name on, so they can hang it on their own Christmas tree too. One of our staff also makes candles to take home as a keepsake.

"We know some people appreciate coming every year, and some many years after a loss. Anyone who would find it helpful is welcome."

The event will start with refreshments in the main entrance at Ormskirk Hospital at 6pm. The service will begin at 6.30pm and last for about 30 minutes in the recently-refurbished Baby Garden which can be found off the main corridor, opposite the small shop.

Trees of Remembrance, for children and adults, will also be available in the prayer and quiet rooms at both Southport and Ormskirk hospitals during December. Visitors will be welcome to write the name or names of loved ones, of any age, on a decoration and hang it from the tree.

Funeral directors launch appeal for Christmas toys

Company calling on public to help brighten up festive season for youngsters at refuge and children's hospice

Report by Kenny Parker

Margaret, Lisa and Sally Hunter of MLS Independent Funeral Directors.

BOSSES at a family-run funeral directors are once again appealing for donations of Christmas gifts for good causes.

Margaret, Lisa and Sally Hunter of MLS Independent Funeral Directors are inviting members of the public to help brighten up the festive season for youngsters at the Liberty Centre refuge in Ormskirk and Claire House Children's Hospice in Wirral.

They are appealing to anyone who has an extra new toy this year which they would like to donate to youngsters being cared for by the West Lancs domestic abuse charity or the hospice to drop them off at either of the company's funeral homes at Moss Delph Lane, Aughton or Liverpool Road North, Burscough.

Claire House cares for seriously and terminally ill children by creating wonderful experiences aimed at bringing back a sense of normality and providing specialist nursing care and emotional support for families.

The Liberty Centre provides a range of services for victims of domestic violence and abuse in West Lancs, including a refuge for women and children.

Margaret, Lisa and Sally Hunter said: "The festive season isn't the same for everyone, no matter how you try to dress it up.

"With your help we can hopefully try to give others a Christmas that they will want to remember."

University hopes to avert planned strike action in row over pay and conditions

Report by Kenny Parker

Edge Hill University.

EDGE Hill University hopes a dispute over staff pay and conditions for teaching, research and library staff, can be resolved ahead of planned strike action next week.

The University and College Union (UCU) announced that members at Edge Hill, and 56 other institutions across the country, will take part in eight days of strikes from November 25 over what it described as the 'universities' failure to make improvements on pay, equality, casualisation and workloads'.

The strike action would be followed by union members taking 'action short of a strike' including working strictly to contract, not covering for absent colleagues and refusing to reschedule lectures lost to strike action

At Edge Hill 52% of UCU members took part in the ballot and 75% of those voted in favour of strikes.

The union say strike action is a last resort and universities had to respond positively and quickly if they wanted to avoid disruption before Christmas.

A spokesperson for Edge Hill University said the pay award is negotiated nationally and while it respects and support the rights of staff to withdraw their labour, it hopes that the dispute can be resolved nationally without recourse to industrial action.

The Universities and Colleges Employers Association (UCEA), which is negotiating with the union, said union members at only 57 of the 147 Higher Education institutions it represents voted for strike action.

A UCEA spokesperson said: "We are dismayed to see UCA's decision to ask its members to take such extensive and damaging strike action over its national pay demands.

"The other four trade unions also balloted over the final pay outcome and failed to achieve sufficient support from their members. Action of this kind will be damaging to students, lose UCU members money and risk undermining the collective bargaining arrangements.

"It is completely unrealistic in the collective pay arrangements for UCU to attempt to force all 147 employers to re-open the concluded 2019-20 national pay round.

"The outcome was already at the very limit of what is affordable and the ballots confirm that the vast majority of employees in these institutions understand the challenging context.

"The 25,398 UCU members who voted to support strike action over pay represent just 7.8% of the 325,000 employees covered by the national pay arrangements."

Hospital A&E's jungle theme play area set to be a roaring success

A JUNGLE-themed play area created for youngsters at Ormskirk Hospital's emergency department thanks to the fundraising efforts of a staff nurse, looks set to be a roaring success.

It is hoped the revamped area, featuring an eye-catching mural illustrated with images of lions, giraffes, zebras and other jungle creatures, will help to both distract and entertain children during their stay at the hospital in Wigan Road.

Nurse Jessica Healy came up with the jungle theme idea after noticing the play area had become 'a little tired-looking.'

To raise funds to brighten up the facility, she organised a sponsored walk along the beach from Formby to Southport and her efforts were also supported by Crown Paints in Southport, the hospital League of Friends and two volunteers artists, 'Nigel and Yvonne.'

Jessica said: "Nigel and Yvonne kindly donated their time to help us revamp the playroom. We worked together to create the idea of the jungle theme and wanted to try and make it interactive."

"The children love the animals and it really helps to distract and entertain our poorly visitors. Huge thanks to everyone who helped to make this happen."

Southport and Ormskirk Hospital NHS Trust's director of nursing, midwifery and therapies, Juliette Cosgrove, commented: "Well done to everyone, especially to Jessica for having the energy, enthusiasm and initiative to make this happen. The mural is stunning."

New drive to recruit retained firefighters

LANCASHIRE Fire and Rescue Service has launched a renewed drive to recruit retained firefighters to serve at Ormskirk, Skelmersdale or Tarleton fire stations.

Retained firefighters provide a back-up service to full-time staff and are paid a salary and receive compensation for call-outs and training.

Applicants, aged 18-plus, should have a good level of all-round fitness with no underlying health conditions.

They should also live or work within five minutes of their nearest station, have a good standard of eyesight (no colour blindness) and hearing (aided/unaided); and be literate and numerate.

In addition, they must also be available to provide evening and daytime cover, work well with others, have no criminal convictions and pass an online test in Maths and English unless they have GCSE C grade or higher in those subjects.

Crew manager and on-call support officer, Dave Whitley, said: "Recruits will be paid a basic salary and trained to a high standard at the same time, so it's a win-win. This role would be ideal for individuals who either work from home or work locally - we have people from all walks of life."

Recruitment will run until Friday, December 6. To begin the process, anyone interested in becoming a retained firefighter can visit website https://jobs.lancsfirerescue.org.uk/.

Alternatively they can drop into any of the stations -at County Road, Ormskirk, Tanhouse Road, Skelmersdale or Hesketh Lane, Tarleton - on any training night (Wednesdays 7 to 9pm).

Is university's campus a 'sustainable environment' for students and local residents?

IS Edge Hill's campus the most polluted in the country?

Just a thought after reading the article in last week's Champion about the two university staff members who will shortly become members of a new international panel on behaviour change in relation to sustainability!

With a busy main road running the entire length of its southern edge and parking for hundreds of cars on its campus, could this be another accolade for the university?

The vast majority of cars enter the main car park from St Helens road, or wind their way very slowly through the campus green belt to the 'temporary car park' adjacent to Scarth Hill Lane. Queuing and slow-moving traffic emits vast amounts of petrol and diesel fumes.

Local residents live around the campus and also many hundreds of students actually live on the campus - is this a sustainable environment for them ?

Anne Fletcher, Ormskirk resident.

RE: THE Champion November 13 issue, surely you have better front page news than yet another article emanating from Edge Hill University!

Perhaps, 'West Lancs pays respects to the fallen' (Page 5); 'Transatlantic plea for help identifying mystery boy soldier (Page 3) or 'Hospitals' appeal for clothes etc.' (Page 2) would have been better choices.

B & B, Ormskirk.

Disgusted by over-the-top 'poisoning' claim when hard-working taxi drivers are just trying to earn a living

RE: The letter about 'poisonous diesel fumes' from the taxis on the Concourse shopping centre rank (Letters, November 13).

We are entering winter and engines are running to keep drivers and paying customers warm.

It's an over-the-top accusation to say we are poisoning shoppers inside the shopping centre as we are well out of the reach of the main entrance, to which the doors are always shut unless people enter or exit the Concourse.

There is always a continuous flow of traffic next to the taxi rank from shoppers whose vehicles also blow exhaust fumes out.

It's extreme to even suggest a way of rectifying the matter is to put a hold on licences.

Does this person know taxi drivers are not out there for the fun of it but to provide for their families?

Does this person get up in the morning and think 'I wonder who I can try and put out of a job today'?

We find that remark pretty disgusting.

Also, issuing a fine for taxi drivers is another insult. If that's the case do we fine everyone who enters the premises?

Clearly, this person has too much time on their hands.

Hard-working Hackney carriage drivers on the Concourse taxi rank.

READER Hilary Smith from Ashurst, Skelmersdale sent us this photo which she captioned 'The beauty of autumn sunset.'

Make a festive wish come true for a visually impaired child

I AM writing to let readers know that we have a very special festive treat for children with vision impairment in the run up to Christmas.

As you know, Santa receives millions of letters from children each year and works hard to respond to every single one - but he knows that often children with vision impairment are not able to read his reply.

That is why he is teaming up with the Royal National Institute of Blind People (RNIB), who have a squad of elves standing by to make sure his letters are available in formats like braille, audio and large print.

If you know a child with vision impairment who would love to receive a letter from Santa then please send their Christmas letter to Santa Claus, RNIB, Midgate House, Midgate, Peterborough PE1 1TN by Monday, December 2.

Alternatively, you can email santa@rnib.org.uk by Friday, December 20 for an email with a large-print attachment.

Make sure to include the child's name age, postal address, contact number and which format they need.

Special thanks to our incredible fundraisers for making this Christmas wish come true.

David Clarke, RNIB.

Merseyrail set to bring in station smoking ban

SMOKING will be banned from all Merseyrail train stations as part of a new health focus by the rail company.

The measure will come into force on Sunday, December 1 and from this date, passengers will no longer be able to smoke in any public areas of Merseyrail stations or platforms, with the only exception being car parks.

Vaping and e-cigarettes are also included in the ban and Merseyrail staff and byelaw enforcement officers will be actively requesting passengers to stop smoking on platforms and other areas of stations from December.

The move, off the back of the national Stoptober campaign, is part of Merseyrail's commitment to cleaner air and the comfort of its passengers.

Warnings will be issued to anyone smoking on platforms on December 1, however those that continue may be fined from January 1, 2020.

Risks

Andy Heath, managing director of Merseyrail, said: "The comfort of passengers on our network is absolutely paramount to us, so I am pleased to announce a smoking ban across all of our stations and platforms.

"Those who wish to smoke will be able to do so in station car parks or off station property, however we want all passengers to be able to use our trains and stations comfortably and without the risks of passive smoking, such as lung cancer, asthma and pneumonia."

Union chiefs in call for more action on low pay

Report by Danielle Thompson

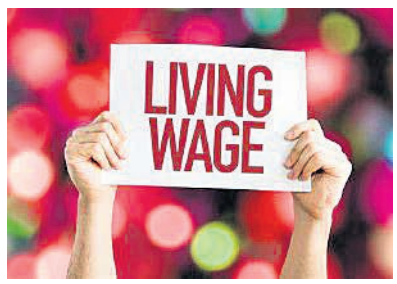
Report claims 21.3% of employees in West Lancs are paid below 'real' living wage

MORE than one in five employees in the borough are earning 'less than a living wage', according to a new report.

Constituencies with the highest proportion of employees paid below the living wage in the North West include West Lancashire, where 8,000 employees (21.3%) are paid below the 'real' living wage, according to the latest figures shared by the Trades Union Congress (TUC).

The real living wage rate, set by the Living Wage Foundation, was increased to £9.30 per hour last week, as new employers in the region announced their accreditation to the scheme.

However, figures from the Annual Survey of Hours and Earnings (ASHE) estimate that 629,000 jobs, representing 21.1% of jobs, pay below the living wage rate, higher than the UK average of 20.1%.



The TUC are calling for a £10 an hour minimum wage 'as soon as possible'.

But as many as one third of employees in some constituencies in the North West are paid below the rate.

TUC North West's regional secretary, Jay McKenna, said: "It's great that we've seen more employers become voluntarily accredited to pay staff a wage that they can live on. They're doing the right thing by their workers and paying their share. But these numbers show that for too many, low pay is a problem that isn't going away.

"The impact on working families is clear for all to see. We've seen the growth in food bank use, from people in work also, and we have workers across the country taking strike action just to squeeze an extra couple of pounds from their employer so they have a wage they can live on.

"Working families everywhere deserve better than having to scrape by, loading the everyday essentials onto a credit card or cutting back. We need a £10 an hour minimum wage as soon as possible."

Drama group raise laughs and funds for MS society

MEMBERS of the Mawdesley U3A drama group raised more than just a few laughs when they performed humorous sketches and stories in aid of the West Lancashire Group of the Multiple Sclerosis Society (WLMSS).

Their efforts, raised a total of £280 for the charity which helps MS sufferers in the borough, offering counselling and holding twice monthly coffee mornings at Brook's Bistro within Brookside Retirement Living in Aughton Street, Ormsirk.

Margaret Tittle of the Mawdesley U3A is pictured presenting the cheque for £280 to Rob Kilgour of WLMSS.

Work underway on Linnets' new ground

BUILDING work is now well underway on Burscough FC's new ground.

Club chairman Mike Swift announced that following essential administration work, they were pleased to confirm the construction team's arrival on site at Victoria Park and a start on the actual building of the new football facilities.

He said: "We apologise for any disruption to village life while this significant investment takes place."

Plans for the new ground, situated to the north west of the current facilities at Victoria Park on Mart Lane and Bobby Langton Way, were approved two years ago while permission for the building of 52 new houses on the site of the existing football pitch, was granted earlier this year.

A condition of the planning permission for the new houses was that the new ground should be completed before work starts on the housing development.

While work takes place, Burscough FC's scheduled home league fixtures will continue to be played at Victoria Park for the duration of the 2019/20 season.

Woodland Trust donates nearly 33,000 saplings to groups across Lancashire

Report by Danielle Thompson

Initiative is part of conservation charity's campaign to tackle climate change

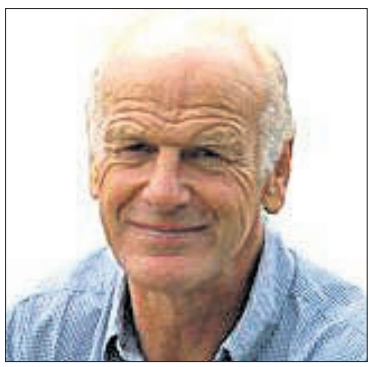
A CONSERVATION charity is gifting more than 85,440 trees to 468 organisations across the North West, including 32,865 saplings to 173 organisations in Lancashire.

Nearly three-quarters of a million trees are winging their way across the UK as part of the Woodland Trust's Big Climate Fightback.

Almost 4,000 schools and community groups will be taking delivery of between 15 and 420 saplings each in the next two weeks and every tree will count towards the trust's campaign to help tackle climate change.

The Woodland Trust is the largest woodland conservation charity in the UK and their Big Climate Fightback aims to get more than a million people to pledge to plant a tree on the run-up to a mass day of planting across the country on Saturday, November 30. Everyone that applied for a tree pack will be added to the list of pledges.

The packs were funded by partners Sainsbury's, players of the People's Postcode Lottery, Yorkshire Tea and Selfridges. In addition, the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs has supported the trust to provide 100,000 trees a year to state-funded primary schools in England over four years and funds four regional project officers to support schools and assist them with tree pack applications helping to increase the spread of green space improvement.



John Tucker, director of woodland outreach at the Woodland Trust.

Since the initiative started in 2010, 9.6 million trees have been sent to schools and community groups keen to improve their local area. Every tree has been UK-sourced and grown as part of the trust's quality assurance scheme to guarantee the provenance of native trees. The scheme guarantees that trees from a number of nurseries marked with the UKSG badge are raised from seeds sourced only from the UK and grown in the UK for their entire lifespan.

John Tucker, director of woodland outreach at the Woodland Trust, said: "Tree planting has never been higher on the social and political agenda. From school children to MPs, people are waking up to the message that trees are a big part of the solution to tackling climate change. Trees absorb carbon dioxide and produce oxygen, as well as filtering out other harmful pollutants from the air that we all breathe. Quite simply we need more of them.

"The Government has committed to act on the Committee on Climate Change recommendations and legislate for net zero emissions by 2050. To do this we need to plant 50 million trees each year. The Woodland Trust is pleased to be sending out this huge number of trees to schools and community groups that are eager to get planting and be part of the Big Climate Fightback.

"There are many reasons why schools and community groups choose to plant trees. Some of the wonderful projects this season include creating outdoor classrooms where pupils can spend time in a tranquil, outdoor, environment which will improve their education as well as their mental health and well-being. Others are growing natural screens and borders from roads to help to reduce pollution and improve air quality. We're delighted to help them to create greener places to live."

They have two deliveries a year, in November and March, to coincide with the tree-planting season. Tree packs are hedge, copse, wild harvest, year round colour, working wood, wildwood, wildlife and urban.

Model trains make return visit to library

MEMBERS of the Chorley and District Model Railway Club will be bringing their 'Big and Little Train' show to Ormskirk Library on Saturday, November 23.

Following their visit to the Burscough Street library last year, the club are returning with a variety of layouts with a Christmas theme.

The trains will be running between 9.30am and 2.30pm and there will also be some 'special' little engines running throughout out the day for younger enthusiasts.

The event is free and no booking is required. For further information contact the library on 0300 1236703.

After missing two buses it wasn't third time lucky!

YOU'VE heard the expression 'third time lucky'? Well, don't believe a word of it!

Roadworks at the junction on the main A59 Northway through Maghull and the 'old' Liverpool Road South that passes through the west of the town mean Arriva bus services to and from Ormskirk and Southport are being re-routed straight along Northway with just one stop on the stretch of Liverpool Road South. For me this means an extra-long walk to a bus stop exposed to the elements with no shelter.

There are however 'new' timetables on the stop which indicate that both the 310 to Ormskirk and the 300 to Southport reach there at exactly the same times as they normally reach the Hall Lane stop on Liverpool Road. Trouble is the 'new' route is both shorter and omits two bus stops on its journey - which means both services tend to arrive rather earlier than shown at the stop.

On two occasions last week I turned up (in poor weather) at least three minutes before the advertised 10.37am departure of the 310 to Ormskirk - only after a cold (and wet) 10-minute wait having to admit the blasted thing had gone early.

And the drivers obviously realise this because on both routes they have the habit of stopping further down the line (at Lydiate or Halsall on the 300 or at Aughton on the 310) to await correct time. It would seem more appropriate if this correction was made at the first stop (Hall Lane) that is arrived at before correct time.

Anyway, when on Sunday I decided on a shopping expedition to Southport I was delighted when the bus arrived only a minute or so early, giving me just over an hour in that fair town to shop. I should have known better.

I just missed my planned return 300 (my fault, I thought I had time to walk to the stop on Lord Street - and I hadn't) but was still a little miffed when, having kicked my heels for a further hour the next 300 to Maghull was nearly 10 minute late!

But at least it had a friendly driver and was comfortingly warm. Trouble was, we had only got as far as the site of the former Shakespeare Hotel when the driver of a white van, which had already managed to demolish a metal fence and brick wall of a building there, then managed to reverse into the side of our bus!

The bus driver checked that no passenger needed to go to A&E, before getting out - only to find that the van had simply driven off.

But as our driver pointed out, he left not only a trail of destruction, but also a trail of water, no doubt from his busted radiator, and one of his number plates which had been ripped off.

The bus driver reckoned the police could follow the water trail to wherever the van eventually came to a halt. Although they hadn't arrived before the next 300 turned up to take us on our way nearly an hour later.

So my third time lucky turned out to be an arrival home three hours late.

Actually, this sorry tale of woe reminded me of a story I covered for the Champion many years ago. This involved a vehicle crashing through the wall and damaging a house in the 'old' part of Deyes Lane in Maghull. Here too the culprit had simply reversed out and driven off - again leaving a watery trail in his wake.

But the house owner's call to the local police led to a speedy response by the community Bobby (yes, we had one of those in those far-off days) who did indeed follow the incriminating water and the culprit was apprehended and charged. A far more satisfactory outcome you might think.

Of course, we in Maghull also had a fully-staffed and operational police station then and our 'local Bobby' was well known and well liked. Those were the days my friends, those were the days.

Christmas Day 'meal appeal' for lonely adults surpasses target

A FUNDRAISING appeal has surpassed its £3,782 target to help a community group buy kitchen equipment in time to host a free Christmas lunch.

Guests enjoying a previous Cherish Christmas meal.

Since 2012, the Cherish group, led by husband-and-wife team David and Pam Nickson, have reached out to lonely over-50s across Southport and West Lancashire in need of friendship, companionship and support.

Last month the couple launched an online crowdfunding appeal at spacehive.com/cherish seeking funds by November 3 to buy the equipment and have it fitted and tested at their base in time for the festive season.

And having raised a fantastic £4,007 they are now appealing for anyone who is lonely to get in touch to attend their eighth annual festive event.

David said: "On Christmas Day we host a three-course meal with entertainment and gifts, all free of charge, and last year we had 40 guests! We rely totally on the community, volunteers and local businesses to support this event.

"Cherish got its name because our guests said they cherished each other's company.

"Previously we have hosted many events without a permanent base but 2018 saw us move into our new 'home' at the Open-Well Life Centre in Albert Road, Southport. This allows us to provide greater support for those socially isolated or in need of company.

"We are once again having a meal on Christmas Day, mainly for the elderly or anyone over 50 who would otherwise be on their own. Although it's a wonderful time of the year for most people, for many others it can be a very sad and difficult time and people can become very lonely and isolated.

Important

"This is the eighth year we have done this and, as ever, our aim is to let people know they don't have to be on their own on Christmas Day.

"We know there are various organisations and places that cater for the homeless on Christmas Day, our aim is to mainly reach the older generation. We have a three-course lunch, music, gifts and a magic show by a local magician, but the most important thing is spending time with each other.

"There is no charge for this but we do ask for a £5 deposit to secure booking. This will be refunded in full before guests leave on Christmas Day.

"Also, if anybody would like to support the event, either by donating good-quality Christmas gifts, volunteering on the day or any other way they can think of, then we would ask them to get in touch."

To enable them to plan and cater correctly, the last date to book for the meal is Tuesday, December 3. To book on or make a donation, call David on 07951 813 470.

AN INSPIRED NEW WAY TO RETIRE

Southport's brand new retirement development is now open and welcoming new Homeowners. The Sailings, on Alexandra Road, features a range of 55 spacious one, two and three-bedroom apartments by award winning developer, Adlington Retirement Living.

With all the time in the world, a lively social calendar, the company of friendly people and the reassurance of support when you need it, you can truly live life your way, every day, at The Sailings.

CONTEMPORARY ACCOMMODATION

There are plenty of thoughtful touches and services available to make life a little bit easier too. The apartments have been designed with later life in mind and every detail, from the height of the door handles to the layout of the bathroom has been considered to make everyday life safer, simpler and more comfortable for homeowners.

Each of the private apartments will include generous living areas and contemporary fitted kitchens with integrated appliances. Many have stylish en-suite shower rooms and separate bathrooms, and for that all-important outside space, most apartments feature a walk on balcony or patio area, overlooking the beautifully landscaped gardens.

A COMMUNITY ON YOUR DOORSTEP

This new, high-end, development offers the best of both worlds. Homeowners can enjoy the privacy of their own peaceful and spacious apartment, spend time in the leafy gardens (which are maintained by an expert team of gardeners), relax in the hair salon, therapy room or lounge and then invite their friends over to enjoy the table service restaurant, without having to think about cooking or washing up.

PEACE OF MIND

Adlington's real point of difference is being able to offer round the clock, 24-hour on-site support, and tailored care should it ever be needed, in the future. By offering optional and flexible care, homeowners and their families have peace of mind, which is cited as one of the key reasons why so many people choose to invest in an Adlington apartment.

Security is of paramount importance and a sophisticated emergency call system operates in each apartment and throughout all the communal areas and gardens, as well as a security video entry so you only allow access to people you know and trust.

MOVING MADE EASY

Adlington go the extra mile to ensure the journey to retirement living goes as smoothly as possible, by offering an optional decluttering service, and supportive sales team on hand every step of the way.

They even throw-in a unique, complimentary 8-hour Handyman service to help you achieve the best look for your new apartment.

AWARD-WINNING EXPERTISE

Adlington picked up the much-coveted What House? Gold Award for Best Retirement Development in 2017 for their Otley development in West Yorkshire. Alexandra Johnson, Adlington Sales and Marketing Director comments:

"Adlington's vision is to empower our older generation to live a long, happy and healthy life. By creating spacious homes in safe and secure environments with active communities - we are responding to the changing needs of retirees and helping individuals live an independent life."

Karen Chicken, General Manager at The Sailings, adds:

"We care about our Homeowners and consider them part of our extended family. Our priority is always to do the best for them - whether that's by arranging a personal health care package, helping them with everyday tasks, or respecting their independence."

Rotary club Christmas float route

THE Rotary Club of Maghull and Aughton has announced details of the timetable for this year's Christmas charity float taking in Ormskirk, Aughton, and Burscough.

Ian Agnew, organiser of the float which takes collections for the club's good causes en route, said: "Our brightly-coloured float, accompanied by Santa and his little helpers is always well received by local residents, particularly the youngsters. And we are grateful for the generosity of residents whose donations are distributed to local charities."

All money collected will be given to charities, including the community groups which have helped with the collection, at a presentation at Maghull Town Hall in February.

The float is manned by volunteers and the route and timetable are subject to change in the event of operational problems or adverse weather conditions. It will start its tour of local roads at 6pm on weekdays and 5pm at weekends.

The scheduled itinerary includes: Tuesday, December 3: Redgate and Beechwood Drive, Ormskirk. Saturday, December 7: Delph Park Estate, Aughton. Sunday, December 8: Town Green Lane, The Serpentine and Sefton Gardens, Aughton. Tuesday, December 10: Swanpool Lane and Long Lane, Aughton. Wednesday, December 18: Rivington Drive, Burscough.

Care home celebrates improved CQC rating with Armistice Day birthday party

STAFF and residents at the Abbey Wood Lodge Care Home in Ormskirk held a party to celebrate its fifth birthday and improved Care Quality Commission (CQC) rating.

They were joined for the occasion, which coincided with Armistice Day, by members of the Skelmersdale Veterans Association and Mayor of West Lancs, Councillor Gaynar Owen.

Following a short reflection on remembrance by Cllr. Owen, bagpiper Bob Wilson gave a rendition of Amazing Grace before guests enjoyed a buffet meal.

The home on County Road which opened in 2014 and is run by Athena Healthcare Group, was awarded an overall 'good' rating by the CQC following a visit by inspectors.

Charity trust organises village Christmas tree lights switch-on LOCAL charity the Douglas Cardiac Trust has once again organised for a Christmas tree to be placed in Mark Square, Tarleton, and is inviting members of the public to enjoy carols and mince pies at the grand lights switch-on event on Friday, November 29.

Sponsored by local firms and private donors, the annual event is one of the main fundraising activities of the trust whose charitable work includes the provision of defibrillators in public access places in Hesketh Bank, Banks and Tarleton.

Entertainment will be provided by a bass band and local schoolchildren singing carols from 7pm and there will be "mince pies for all." The switch-on ceremony will take place at 7.15pm.

University scholarship will help diving devotee Ben carry on conservation work

Report by Danielle Thompson

AN Edge Hill student and marine conservationist who combines his passion for diving with volunteering projects abroad is hoping to continue his conservation work in more far-flung places after being awarded a scholarship by the Ormskirk university.

Ben Jones, a first-year BSc (Hons) Ecology and Conservation student, volunteers both in the UK and abroad, but is never more at home than when he's 100ft or more underwater!

The 22-year-old from Ainsdale has spent a year travelling and working on marine conservation projects in New Zealand, Turkey, and Fiji becoming a qualified rescue diver along the way.

Now he hopes the scholarship opportunity will fund another trip to Fiji in the summer and will help him encourage others to take part in conservation activities as an ambassador for Edge Hill.

With a group of other travellers, Ben taught at a local school in Fiji, educating them about eco-systems, as well as helping with building projects.

Keen diver Ben Jones is hoping to undertake another conservation project in Fiji after being awarded a scholarship by Edge Hill University.

In New Zealand and Turkey, he also supported local causes... and learned all about 350 different species of fish. Closer to home, Ben volunteers at the Formby National Trust, enhancing his learning of and teaching people about conservation issues in the local area.

Ben Jones said: "I was planning a trip to get as far away as I could for a bit of a change, and that's how I got to Fiji, fully embracing the Fijian life, living on an island, which was actually smaller than Edge Hill University's campus, with no running water.

"When I got the scholarship call, I wasn't even going to answer the phone, I thought it'd just be about my dive tank!"

With a desire to volunteer as much as he can, Ben says the scholarship will help fund another trip to Fiji in summer 2020.

Ben is also the president of Edge Hill's Eco Garden Society and has transformed the university's allotment, which was previously overgrown, and made a raised pond for the local frogs.

Animal sanctuary team appeal for donations in run-up to Christmas

Report by Danielle Thompson

STAFF at the Woodlands Animal Sanctuary are appealing for donations to help them cope with ever-spiralling expenses.

The sanctuary in Sandy Lane, Holmeswood, which aims to rescue, rehabilitate and rehome unwanted, ill-treated, abandoned or neglected animals, costs around £3,000 a week to run.

And they are once again asking the local community to show their support.

One of their recent and most expensive rescue operations involved an underweight cat giving birth to six kittens which have to be hand-reared!

Sally McDerby from the sanctuary said that shortly after having welcomed Indie, a two-year-old heavily-pregnant Calico, she had to be rushed to the Rufford Veterinary Group after giving birth for an emergency lifesaving operation.

And although she was able to return to the sanctuary after a few days she will be unable to be reunited with her kittens and they are now being hand-reared.

Sally said: "It is thanks to wonderful volunteers that these kittens are being given a fighting chance at survival - but it's not easy. They need feeding every two hours throughout the day and night and with six of them this is not a quick job!

"As well as time, which is invaluable, the cost of hand-rearing and the operation that Indie received will all need to be paid for.

Indie with one of her kittens.

"Any contributions would be most welcome. This can be done by visiting our website at woodland-sanimalsanctuary.org.uk or clicking on a link on our Facebook page.

"We are also holding our last fundraising event of the year, our Christmas Fayre, on Saturday, December 17 from 11am to 3pm at Banks Leisure Centre on Greaves Hall.

"This is a chance to spend a relaxing festive day with your family and friends, enjoying the delicious food and treats on offer, peruse the stalls, turn your hand to one of the many games and even bring your pooch and join in with the fun dog show!

"Admission is a donation on the door and what better way to spend the day in the run-up to Christmas than enjoying yourself with your family while raising money for a good cause?"

Village church hosts festive fundraiser

HOLY Trinity Church in Bickerstaffe is holding a traditional Christmas fayre and Christmas tree festival on Saturday, November 30 from noon until 2pm.

A light lunch available and attractions will include a raffle, tombola, cake stall, pound stall vegetables/salads, plus a visit by Father Christmas and more. All proceeds will go to church funds.

Fran Dean receives the certificate for Best Public Playing Field/Sports Ground from County Councillor Paul Rigby.

Young dancers' magical feat in Magaluf...

TALENTED young members of a West Lancs dance school have returned from a successful performance in a leading professional show on the Spanish island of Majorca.

The Inspiration Hagan School of Dance, which runs classes in schools in Tarleton, Westhead, Ormskirk and Burscough, sent out 35 students to take part in Pirates Adventures in Magaluf - billed as 'the island's No. 1 show' - during the half-term break.

The local youngsters, aged between five and 18, joined dancers from other schools in France, Spain and England.

Dance school principal, Susan Forster said her young charges had worked hard for months to prepare for their 25-minute performance which included a variety of styles of dances. "The students shone like stars on the day with their professionalism, technique and performance."

Village toasts successes in county competition

RESIDENTS and local councillors have been celebrating a West Lancashire village's success in a county-wide contest.

Downholland Parish Council welcomed parish champion, County Councillor Paul Rigby to an event organised to mark Haskayne's achievements in the Lancashire Best Kept Village competition.

Haskayne Jubilee Fields Play Park won the Best Public Playing Field/Sports Ground, while other notable achievements saw the village's Orchard and Wild Flower Garden placed third in the Accessible Public Gardens category, and Haskayne Village Hall highly commendedin the Public Buildings category.

At the celebration event, Cllr. Rigby presented Fran Dean with the certificate for Winner of Public Playing Field/Sports Ground. Mrs Dean ensures the field is litter-free while the grounds are maintained by Rawsthorne Landscapes of Halsall.

Interpreter in cannabis farm trial is jailed

A WOMAN who worked as an interpreter during the trial of a Vietnamese gang which ran a sophisticated cannabis farm operation across the North West has been jailed for providing forged documents to a court.

Many of the gang claimed to have been victims of trafficking to evade prosecution and used false identities and fraudulent documents to rent 21 properties across the region - including a house in Orrell Lane, Burscough - before turning them into cannabis farms.

The enterprise was said to have brought the gang hundreds of thousands of pounds.

When they appeared in court Kim Tran, 49, acted as an interpreter for 19-year-old Thanh Thi Nguyen of Webster Avenue, Bootle.

During proceedings Tran handed in a birth certificate which appeared to show Thanh Thi Nguyen was only 15. However, following enquiries the document was proved to be a forgery and Tran was charged with conspiracy to pervert the course of justice.

She had denied the charge but was found guilty following a trial in September and was jailed for 12 months at Burnley Crown Court.

Thanh Nguyen, Jack Nguyen, 31, of no-fixed-abode, and Hoai Nguyen, 20, also of Webster Avenue, Bootle, were jailed for between seven and eight months for their part in the conspiracy. They had all pleaded guilty.

In December of last year, 16 members of the cannabis gang were jailed in relation to the drug conspiracy for a total of 35 years.

Brownies from 4th Parbold & Dalton Brownies holding a 'certificate of appreciation' from Chorley Hedgehog Rescue Centre after making their donations. Also pictured are centre volunteers Sarah Coleman and Adrienne Talbot.

'Prickly' subject proves a hit with Brownies...

YOUNGSTERS from the 4th Parbold and Dalton Brownies have been learning all about looking after sick and injured hedgehogs - thanks to a visit by volunteers from the Chorley Hedgehog Rescue Centre.

The Brownies learned about the work that the rescue centre does in helping to care for the prickly creatures before releasing them back into the wild.

They were also taught about making sure there is a pathway into their gardens to allow hedgehogs to come and go; how to keep them safe from strimmers and garden netting such as that placed over strawberries; and why they should never give them milk.

As well as making a £50 donation, the Brownies also collected 'snuggly items' for the centre - old dressing gowns, fleecy material, garments and towels - to be used in the care of the hedgehogs, and kitten food to feed them,

Volunteers, Sarah Coleman, Adrienne Talbot and Pauline Craughwell, didn't take any live hedgehogs along as they would have been distressed and are only handled when necessary before being released into the wild. However, the children enjoyed photos and videos of the hedgehogs taken at the rescue centre and also got to see models of the animals, showing their various sizes as they grow from hoglets (babies) to adults.

Work begins on new HQ at Altcar Training Camp

by Danielle Thompson

How the two-storey headquarters will look.

WORK has started on construction for a new two-storey office building at Altcar Training Camp.

The project is a new-build headquarters for the Reserve Forces' and Cadets' Association for the North West of England & the Isle of Man (NW RFCA).

The camp, which comprises 620 acres of range and training space and a similar size of foreshore, is one of the UK's small-arms ranges and training complexes. It accommodates around 108,000 Regular, Reserve and Cadet Personnel on overnight stays each year, an average of more than 300 each day.

As part of the construction project for the new building under construction at Altcar Training Camp, piling work has started on site. Due to the very soft, sandy ground in the area, piling is necessary to ensure that the building is situated on solid foundations.

The piling work will only take place during daytime hours Monday to Friday. Evening and weekend work will not be required.

The building work is expected to be completed by the end of July 2020.

Amy Gordon from the Reserve Forces' and Cadets' Association said: "The building work is part of a ten-month project which will see NW RFCA headquarters staff move into a new two-storey office building located near the main entrance of the camp.

Ongoing project

"The office will be a modern and eco-friendly building with a footprint of around 400sq metres with an associated car park of around 600sq metres, which will provide an enduring base for our ongoing work in support of the Reserve and Cadet forces in the region.

"The move comes as part of an ongoing project to relocate into a sustainable building for the future. The project is completely self-funded and will reduce the financial burden imposed on the association and freeing more resources to the benefit of the Reserve and Cadet estate in the region.

"Whitfield & Brown Limited are the appointed construction and development company, based locally in Cheshire. Within the North West they have a robust and balanced supply chain who contribute to ensuring NW RFCA receive the correct service.

"A pre-requisite of the project is that the contractors must ensure the supply chain used is at least 80% within the North West of England."

Rebecca to return for hometown gig

FOLLOWING her sold out tour last year, singer Rebecca Ferguson has announced a very special run of UK dates for February 2020.

The Anfield-born singer will visit some of the UK's biggest cities, including a hometown performance at Liverpool Grand Central Hall, when she will perform all her greatest hits and songs from her forthcoming album.

Having already released four Top 10 UK albums in her career, Rebecca is preparing album number five under the watchful eye of Nile Rodgers at Abbey Road Studios.

Rebecca Ferguson

After coming runner-up on the seventh series of UK's The X Factor, Rebecca Ferguson has not been short of success since her first appearance on the reality TV show in 2010.

Rebecca's record-breaking debut album 'Heaven' was released in 2011 and had critical and commercial success selling 128,000 copies in its first week. The album peaked at No. 3 in the UK Official Charts, making her the fastest-selling debut solo artist of the past decade (2007-2017).

Co-written, it was certified two times platinum in the UK and platinum in Ireland. The album yielded six singles including lead single 'Nothing's Real but Love', which enjoyed commercial success throughout much of Europe and Oceania, entering the UK Singles Chart at number 10.

The strong debut follow-up album 'Freedom' was released in 2013. It was met with positive reviews from critics and commercial success in the UK where it charted at number 6 and has since been certified Gold by the BPI.

This was then followed by 'Lady Sings The Blues' in which Rebecca covered a number of jazz classics made famous by Billie Holiday and her latest album 'Superwoman' which reached number 7 on the UK charts, and gained Ferguson her fourth consecutive Top Ten album.

"I'm happy to be back out singing for my fans," says Rebeca. "I can't wait to tour again, it's been so long."

Rebecca has teamed up with Nile Rodgers to work on her new upbeat single, and now, after two amazing dance singles with producer Afsheen, Rebecca has also collaborated with Rogersevtwo (and co-writer Mike Mago) to release the dance hit 'I'll Be There'. The track is a piano driven house anthem that is bound to make waves throughout the world.

Rebecca has proven herself to be a recording artist with a passion for her craft that is second to none and she is continuing to flourish as a confident songwriter and stunning live performer. Embarking on countless tours across the UK, Europe and the US she has also performed with some of the biggest names in the industry over the past ten years including Lionel Ritchie, Andrea Bocelli, Burt Bacharach and John Legend.

The live dates are as follows:

- 25 February - Birmingham Town Hall
- 25 February - Leeds City Varieties Music Hall
- 27 February - London Islington Assembly Hall
- 28 February - Liverpool Grand Central Hall

Tickets go on general sale Friday, November 22 at 9:30am and will be available from www.gigsandtours.com and www.ticketmaster.co.uk

VIP Packages are also available from www.sjm-vip.com

The Harry Whitehouse Players
Formby United Reform Church
Three Short Comedy Plays
Review by Pete Rimmer

The play was a fun-packed afternoon

THREE plays, seven actors and a simple set made up the entertainment in Fisher Hall at the rear of Formby United Reformed Church.

Set in the village of Smeton, the first play was Neighbourhood Watch, written by Liz Dobson and featuring a cast of upper-class folk who, along with trying to keep the new incoming residents at bay (i.e. not allowing 'riff-raff' into affordable housing), they decided to stage their own robbery, hoping to swindle the insurance companies out of a few thousand pounds.

Gail Moors, playing the part of the gin swilling Mrs Asquith, had some really funny lines as did Mark Hogben, playing a real upper crust twit. The story line was predictable but nonetheless funny for that.

The second play was Oh Mother, another play featuringGail Moors, this time as the ghostly Aunt Mildred who, along with Jill Williams as another ghost, witnesses a robbery and proceeds to solve the case and return the stolen items, much to the disgust of daughter Susan who would have preferred the insurance money.

Finally we get to Airfield by Bob Tucker, set in a disused waiting room. Fred and Lucy seem to have stumbled onto a real fly-by-night outfit when they signed up to fly to Barcelona with Young Yettie Airways.

This of course is just a ruse by Lucy to rid herself of husband Fred and go off on holiday with her new friend Glenda. A sort of Fawlty Towers in an airportand well-acted by Jill Williams together with Valerie and Tim Hogben

The plays, directed by Val Skinner and Jill Williams, had plenty of good one-liners and made for a fun-packed afternoon.

Look out for the next production by this very capable Theatre Company.

Rating: 8/10 - A fun-packed afternoon.

Stand-up special at The Atkinson with four comedians to perform

A STAND-up comedy show will be performed at The Atkinson with some award-winning comedians set to make audiences laugh out loud.

Laugh Out Loud Comedy Club will be at the Southport venue on Saturday, December 7 from 8pm with four comedians on offer - Danny Deegan, Allyson June Smith, Danny Sutcliffe and Damion Larkin (MC).

With the confidence and swagger that you might expect of a North-West comedian at the very top of his game, Danny Deegan is a comedian, writer and actor who has become a regular at most of the major comedy clubs in the UK since he began performing in 2003.

Allyson Smith has, from the moment she put down the chalk brush in 2000 and picked up a mic, been tickling Canada's comedy scene to great acclaim.

Playing to packed rooms has become like another day in the classroom for this former school teacher.

With his unique style and ability Danny Sutcliffe has been recognised as one of the most gifted emerging talents on the UK comedy scene.

His set consists of a mixture of clever one liners and slick jokes that leaves you aching from laughing.

Damion Larkin will often improvise his entire set to hilarious effect. There are no genuine comparisons to this man. He is a versatile and creative comedian who always leaves audiences wanting more.

Doors open at 7.30pm and there is an 8pm start. Tickets are £16.50 in advance or £19 on the door.

To book, call 01704 533 333 or online at www.lolcomedyclubs.co.uk or alternatively call into the Box Office in person at The Atkinson.

Plenty on offer at Chapel Gallery

Delivering quality services since 1888 to the people of Sefton and surrounding areas

Parkhaven Trust
Established 1888

Providing a range of services for older people and people with dementia, Parkhaven Trust has developed a reputation for delivering the services that people need since 1888.

From our original beginnings as the first residential service for people with epilepsy to today's innovative new service at The Beeches we have continued to develop and provide a range of services from at home care to end of life care. We work hard to maintain high standards and all of our services are inspected by the Care Quality Commission and are rated as "Good".

We encourage family involvement in our services and offer support to family members trying to make sense of the care system and difficult choices that have to be made. A unique feature of Parkhaven Trust is that we offer support from an initial diagnosis of dementia through to support for end of life care. We will be there supporting service users and their families.

We employ over 200 staff and are a major employer in the area employing staff as apprentices and staff who have worked with us for over 40 years. As an Investor in People Gold award employer we pride ourselves on recruiting and training excellent staff; it's the staff that make the difference to the care that we provide and they are proud to be part of the "Parkhaven Family"

If you are looking for a working arrangement that fits with your personal commitments why not join our staffing pool to work across our sites in Maghull. More information can be found on our website www.parkhaven.org.uk

PRAYERS

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

Never known to fail.

O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, faithful Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this necessity, O Star of the Sea, help me and show me herein you are my Mother, O Holy Mary Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in my necessity.

(Make Request).

There are none that can withstand your powers. Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 Times).

Sweet Mother, I place this cause in your hands (3 times).

Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine.

This prayer must be said for three days and after that the request will be granted and the prayer must be published.

P.B.D.

St Jude Novena

Start each day with this prayer for nine days

Most Holy Apostle of St Jude, faithful servant and friend of Jesus, the Church honours and invokes you universally, as the patron of difficult cases, of things almost despaired of. Pray for me, I am so helpless and alone. Intercede with God for me that He bring visible and speedy help where help is almost despaired of. Come to my assistance in this great need that I may receive the consolation and help of heaven in all my necessities, tribulations, and sufferings.
(Make your request here...)
And that I may praise God with you and all the saints, forever.
I promise, O Blessed St Jude, to be ever mindful of this great favour granted me by God to always honour you as my special and powerful patron and to gratefully encourage devotion to you. Amen.
Concluding prayer for each day.
May the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored and loved in all the tabernacles until the end of time. Amen.
Blessed be the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Blessed be the Immaculate Heart of Mary, Blessed St Jude Thaddeus, in all the world and for all Eternity. Say Our Father, Say Hail Mary. Amen. J.S.

Novena St Therese of The Child Jesus, Miraculous Invocation to St Therese

Say each day for nine days

O Glorious St Therese, whom Almighty God has raised up to aid and inspire the human family, I implore your Miraculous Intercession. You are so powerful in obtaining every need of body and spirit from the Heart of God. Holy Mother Church proclaims you "Prodigy of Miracles... the Greatest Saint of Modern Times".
Now I fervently beseech you to answer my petition (mention here...) and to carry out your promises of spending Heaven doing good upon earth... of letting fall from Heaven a Shower of Roses. Little Flower give me your childlike faith, to the see the Face of God in the people and experiences of my life, and to love God with full confidence.
St Therese, my Calmelite Sister, I will fulfil your plea "to me made known everywhere" and I will continue to lead others to Jesus through you. Amen.
"I will let fall from Heaven... a Shower of Roses"
St Therese J.S.

PRAYERS

A Meditation

God has created me to do Him some definite service. He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another. I have my mission. I may never know it in this life but I shall be told it in the next. I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons. He has not created me for naught. I shall do good: I shall do His work. Therefore, I will trust Him. Whatever I do, wherever I am, I cannot be thrown away. If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him. If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him. He does nothing in vail. He knows what He is about.

This is a truly jaw-dropping Ferrari!

I DON'T know if the chaps at Ferrari Styling Centre are allowed to have the radio on at work – but I suspect if they do, it's probably permanently tuned into Planet Rock, writes Life on Cars' David Simister.

Every offering in Maranello's current range is full of the sort of shouty styling that you'd expect from someone exposed to Guns 'N' Roses, Led Zeppelin and Foo Fighters eight hours a day – oh, and perhaps the occasional bit of Pink Floyd on lunch breaks. The F8 Tributo is a truly jaw-dropping supercar, but it is very, very loud and in-yer-face. Which, I suppose, is exactly what you'd want a mid-engined Ferrari to be.

But imagine if, just for one day, someone snuck in, switched the frequency to Smooth FM instead and then glued the tuning knob firmly into position. The resulting car would still have that gem of a turbocharged V8, of course, but the bodywork would be penned by people who'd been listening to Bryan Ferry, the Carpenters and Fleetwood Mac instead. That'd be lovely, right?

Well, that's what I'd like to imagine happened in the run-up to the new Roma, which is everything the equally new F8 Tributo and SP90 Stradale aren't.

Obviously, Ferrari has come up with its own, rather waffle-ish explanation for the understated looks – they are, and I quote Maranello's own press release, "a contemporary reinterpretation of the carefree lifestyle of 1950s and '60s Rome, from which the car takes its evocative name". Ahem. It then goes on to explain, for people who speak petrolhead rather than marketing, that it's taken inspiration from the 250 GT Berlinetta Lusso and 250 GT 2+2 of the early Sixties. In other words, Ferrari looked at some of its older stuff, realised it's much prettier than what it's offering at the moment, and decided it'd like to bring some of the old magic back.

Good. I know I described the F8 as "proper bedroom wall stuff" in The Champion about six months ago – but I'm in my thirties and don't blu-tack posters of supercars on my bedroom wall anymore (and I'm not entirely sure what my wife would say if I did). Nope, the Roma reminds me instead of the last new Ferrari I truly lusted after – the utterly wonderful, and equally understated 456 GT. No ground-snorting nose, no massive vents and absolutely no look-at-me rear spoilers – just lovely, beautifully proportioned curves cloaking an enormous engine, a leather-lined cabin and a steering wheel with a Prancing Horse badge on it.

Obviously, it's worth mentioning that the Roma has a 611bhp version of the V8 that's won the Engine of the Year award three times on the trot. You might be interested, too, in that its eight-speed double clutch gearbox is six kg lighter than the seven-speed one in the old Ferrari California, and that it has a dynamic control system that controls yaw angle by hydraulically adjusting brake pressure at the callipers.

Or – if you're like me – you could just leave all the stats to children who want to win at Top Trumps by having the F8 Tributo in the pack. Just appreciate that Ferrari have finally come up with something that reminds you of the Daytona and the 456 GT – a front-engined GT that looks gorgeous and goes like stink.

From now on, Planet Rock is banned at Ferrari Styling Centre. I'm sure the chaps will learn to love Smooth FM…

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

Both sides look to home comforts in battle for points

FANS will be spoilt for choice this weekend as both Burscough and Skelmersdale United have home matches.

Both sides will be desperate to pick up points on home soil to move away from the bottom of the league.

Skem will play Northwich Victoria at Volair Park Prescot while Burscough will entertain Victoria's rival 1874 Northwich at Victoria Park, both games are 3pm kick offs.

Both teams need to start winning games too, however both are tough games, 1874 are top of the North West Counties Premier Division and although Victoria are ninth they are well in the hunt for a promotion place themselves.

Meanwhile, Skelmersdale United have announced that they are still on the lookout for a Secretary and an Assistant Secretary.

Current secretary Danny Roberts is re-locating but has said that he will stay involved as long as is necessary to ensure a smooth hand over.

As the Club Secretary you will be responsible for overseeing and carrying out the football administration duties of the football club.

The primary focus is with the First Team, as well as where required assisting with the Club's Academy and operations.

It will be your responsibility to ensure policies and procedures are implemented in line with best practice.

This is a voluntary unpaid position although travel expenses will be covered by the club for all relevant league meetings. Applicants must be able to attend all home and away games and all club and league meetings when required.

Linnets lose bottom of table clash after failing to take chances

Fellow strugglers Remyca take advantage as Burscough draw a blank

Report by Neil Leatherbarrow

Burscough 0
Litherland Remyca 2

THE pressure is on Burscough after they lost a crucial bottom of the league encounter against fellow strugglers Litherland Remyca.

Although the Remyca are still bottom of the pile, they are now only one point behind the Linnets with two games in hand.

Both teams cancelled each other out in the opening exchanges with the main focus on one or two bad tempered incidents.

Colin McDonald had the first chance of the game but he put a good opportunity wide of the Linnets goal.

Soon afterwards down the other end Conor Christiansen put in a shot that Litherland goalkeeper Ben Morrow made easy work of.

Just after the half-hour mark Litherland grabbed the advantage and in a game as important as this one it held a huge psychological consequence.

Neil Monaghan lifted a free-kick to the far side of the penalty area, centre-half Jack Riley got his head to the ball and it just about crossed the line despite a desperate attempt to keep it out by a Burscough defender.

Former Burscough forward Liam Diggle had the chance to punish his former club as the interval beckoned but saw his shot go wide of the far post and the Linnets fans sighed with relief.

Attacking the Mart Lane end Burscough took a hold on the game in the second-half but their old Achilles heel came to the fore again - they failed to create chances.

Litherland were very organised at the back and Riley led his men well, including another former Linnet in Will Doherty.

The more Burscough pushed to salvage the game the more dangerous Litherland looked in attack, especially as the Linnets were forced to leave gaps at the back. Diggle and James Law causing problems that could have generated a second goal.

The second goal did arrive but it was deep into added time and gave Litherland some cream on their victory cake, Luke Wilson-Jones breaking clear and ending Burscough's hopes when he put the ball past Dominic Garner.

Skem score last gasp equaliser to earn point

A LONG awaited return to league action saw Skelmersdale leave it late to claim a 2-2 draw against Hanley Town, writes Simon Driscoll.

The visitors played almost an hour of the match with ten men after a first half sending off and Skem made the extra man count by equalising in the 90th minute.

On the eve of a year in charge of the team, Paul McNally handed debuts to Patrick Staunton and Khalil Ose-Efa, while fellow new signing Joshua Brabin was named on the bench.

The first chance of the afternoon saw Thomas Riley try his luck from distance with Ben Barnes collecting comfortably before Jordan Tyrer headed past the post after collecting a long range free-kick.

Timothy Sanders sent a shot over the bar after being picked out by Oliver Mellor and he went one better on 23 minutes as he opened the scoring with a strong shot from just outside the area which left Barnes helpless due to the mass of players in sight as Town led 1-0.

A low cross from Adegbenro saw Brodie flick the ball over the bar before Hanley were dealt a blow on 36 minutes with the dismissal of Joshua Thorpe after a dangerous challenge on Steve Kipre.

United levelled five minutes into the second half and in style with a long range pass from Tyrer flicked on by both Brodie and Cawley into the path of Adegbenro who advanced on goal and after avoiding a Woolrich challenge, slotted in to an empty net for 1-1.

Adegbenro's low cross from a Patrick Staunton pass came close to finding Brodie for a potential tap-in but was blocked by the Town defence.

The missed chance proved costly for United as Town regained the lead on 71 minutes, Budrys dispossessing Staunton and running down the wing before crossing for Oliver Putnam who fired past Barnes into the top corner for 2-1.

United did draw level with the clock just ticking into the 90th minute, Griffiths' aerial pass seeing Keatley and Cawley combine with the latter picking out Croughan who fired into the far corner of the net from an angle to make it 2-2.

Town breathed a sigh of relief in the final minutes as United came achingly close to claiming a winner, a looping corner saw Brodie flick on for Tyrer who was unmarked at the far post but his touch proved too heavy with the empty net at his mercy.

United went close twice more before the end with Adegbenro forcing a near post save from Woolrich before Brodie flicked wide from close range. The final whistle sounded with United happy to have avoided defeat but also cursing their missed chances late on but overall a point on the board.
